

2018 HSA and HDHP Limits

New limits for the 2018 calendar year.

The Internal Revenue Service annually reviews and sets the limits for health savings accounts (HSAs) and for high-deductible health plans (HDHPs), to which HSAs must be linked. The amounts, effective for calendar year 2018, are outlined below.

2018 Limits for High-Deductible Health Plans

HDHP Minimum Deductible Amounts

Individual: $1,300

Family: $2,600

HDHP Maximum Out-of-Pocket Amounts

Individual: $6,550

Family: $13,100

2018 Limits for Health Savings Accounts

HSA Maximum Contribution Amounts

Individual: $3,450*

Family: $6,900*

HSA Catch-up Contribution (Age 55 or older)

$1,000

Denotes change from 2017*